Today's Hymns and Readings for Your Participation in the Divine Liturgy

Apolytikion of the Resurrection Tone 1

While the stone was sealed by the Jews and the soldiers were guarding Thy Most Pure Body, Thou didst arise on the third day, O Savior, granting life to the world, for which cause the heavenly pow'rs cried aloud unto Thee: O giver of life, glory to Thy resurrection, O Christ, glory to Thy kingdom, glory to Thy providence, O Thou who alone art the Lover of Mankind.

Apolytikion of the First Sunday of Great Lent-Tone 2

Thy pure image do we venerate, O good One, asking forgiveness of our sins, O Christ our God; for by Thine own will Thou didst ascend the Cross in Thy body, to save Thy creatures from the bondage of the enemy. Wherefore, with thankfulness we cry aloud to thee: Thou hast verily filled all with joy, since Thou didst come, O our Savior, to save the world.

Apolytikion of St. Andrew-Tone 1

O Andrew first-called of the Apostles, brother of Peter the first-enthroned, intercede with the Master of all to grant peace to the world and great mercy to our souls.

Kontakion for Sunday of Great Lent Tone 8

To thee, the champion leader, do I offer thanks of victory O Theotokos, thou who has delivered me from terror; but as thou that hast that power invincible, O Theotokos, thou alone can set me free. From all forms of danger free me and deliver me that I may cry unto thee: "Hail O Bride without Bridegroom."

Prokeimenon

Blessed art Thou, O Lord, the God of our fathers. For Thou art just in all that Thou hast done for us.

The Reading from the Epistle of St. Paul to the Hebrews (11:24-26, 32-40)

Brethren, by faith Moses, when he was grown up, refused to be called the son of Pharaoh's daughter, choosing rather to share ill-treatment with the people of God than to enjoy the fleeting pleasures of sin. And what more shall I say? For time would fail me to tell of Gideon, Barak, Samson, Jephthah, of David and Samuel and the prophets; who through faith conquered kingdoms, enforced justice, received promises, stopped the mouths of lions, quenched raging fire, escaped the edge of the sword, won strength out of weakness, became mighty in war, and put foreign armies to flight. Women received their dead by resurrection. Some were tortured, refusing to accept release that they might rise again to a better life. Others suffered mocking and scourging, and even chains and imprisonment. They were stoned, they were sawn in two, they were killed with the sword; they went about in skins of sheep and goats, destitute, afflicted, ill-treated—of whom the world was not worthy—wandering over deserts and mountains, and in dens and caves of the earth. And all these, though well attested by their faith, did not receive what was promised, since God had foreseen something better for us, that apart from us they should not be made perfect.

The Reading from the Holy Gospel according to St. John (1:43-51)

At that time, Jesus decided to go to Galilee. And He found Philip and said to him, "Follow Me." Now Philip was from Bethsaida, the city of Andrew and Peter. Philip found Nathanael, and said to him, "We have found Him of Whom Moses in the Law and also the Prophets wrote, Jesus of Nazareth, the son of Joseph." Nathanael said to him, "Can anything good come out of Nazareth?" Philip said to him, "Come and see." Jesus saw Nathanael coming to Him, and said of him, "Behold, an Israelite indeed, in whom is no guile!" Nathanael said to Jesus, "How do you know me?" Jesus answered him, "Before Philip called you, when you were under the fig tree, I saw you." Nathanael answered Him, "Rabbi, Thou art the Son of God! Thou art the King of Israel!" Jesus answered him, "Because I said to you, I saw you under the fig tree, do you believe? You shall see greater things than these." And Jesus said to him, "Truly, truly, I say to you, you will see heaven opened, and the angels of God ascending and descending upon the Son of man."

Megalynarion to the Theotokos

All creation rejoiceth in thee, O thou who art full of grace: the angelic hosts and the race of men. O hallowed temple and spiritual paradise, glory of virgins, of whom God was incarnate and became a little child, even our God who is before all the ages; for he made thy womb a throne, and thy body more spacious than the heavens. All creation rejoiceth in thee, O thou who art full of grace. Glory to thee.

A Palm Sunday Tradition Woven Palm Fronds—Shaneeheh

At St. Andrew many of our families meet on Lazarus Saturday and weave palm fronds into baskets. They fill these little baskets with flowers and bring them forward to be blessed by the priests on Palm Sunday. After the fronds are blessed people go forward and get their palm branches for the Palm Sunday celebration at the end of Liturgy.

At end of Liturgy Father calls all of the children forward and tells the gospel story of Christ's entry into Jerusalem riding on the colt of a donkey. People hold up and wave their woven palms during the celebration and shout "Hosanna" when prompted by Father. It is great fun!

To order a Shaneeheh palm frond to weave on Lazarus Saturday or contact Jeannette Zarour at jjandjz1@gmail.com

GREAT LENT & HOLY WEEK FAST MARCH 18—MAY 4

The Church prescribes a common fasting discipline for the faithful during Lent. M-F we abstain from flesh-meats, dairy products, fish, wine and oil. On weekends we are allowed as a relaxation wine and oil. On the Great Feasts of the Annunciation (March 25) and Palm Sunday (April 28), we are allowed fish. During the week we attempt to limit the number of our meals. It is customary for Orthodox to abstain from eating and drinking until noon. When we fast from food we also do from marital relations. The goal of this fast has little to do with food.

The prescribed fast is a means to obtain a little hunger and to produce in us hunger and thirst for the Kingdom of God as well as sympathy for the hungry of the world that would drive us to almsgiving. As well by fasting the Spirit of God tames our unruly desires of the flesh, exposes sin that should be repented of as we recognize our addictions to earthly pleasures and things, frees up time normally taken by food preparation and consumption for spiritual reading, confession, visitation, and other good deeds. We turn our attention away from eating dead things that perish in order to give our attention to eating things which abide forever, such as the Word of God and the Holy Eucharist. If we have a negative attitude toward fasting we are completely missing the point and wasting our time. Fasting is a joy. We don't have to fast. We get to fast. It was precisely this change of attitude concerning fasting from joy to burden that led to the fall of man. If you don't feel positive ask yourself why you don't and hear your Lord's counsel to anoint your head when you fast. Are there specific things God is calling you to fast from? (TV, cell phone, speaking, sleeping too much, criticizing, unedifying reading, movies, internet, social media, eating out, smoking, computer games, shopping, theatre, coffee, sweets. . . .) May your fasting be blessed for your salvation!

FOOD FOR HUNGRY BOXES AVAILABLE TO PICK UP TODAY Pick up yours in the Narthex

During Great Lent each year we show our love for the hungry, hurting people in our own neighborhoods, as well as to those in hidden corners of the world by filling Food for Hungry boxes with our alms. We return our full to overflowing boxes to the Church and place them on the Solea on Palm Sunday. This is a central part of our fasting, prayer and alms giving during this holy season.

Through this tradition we have:

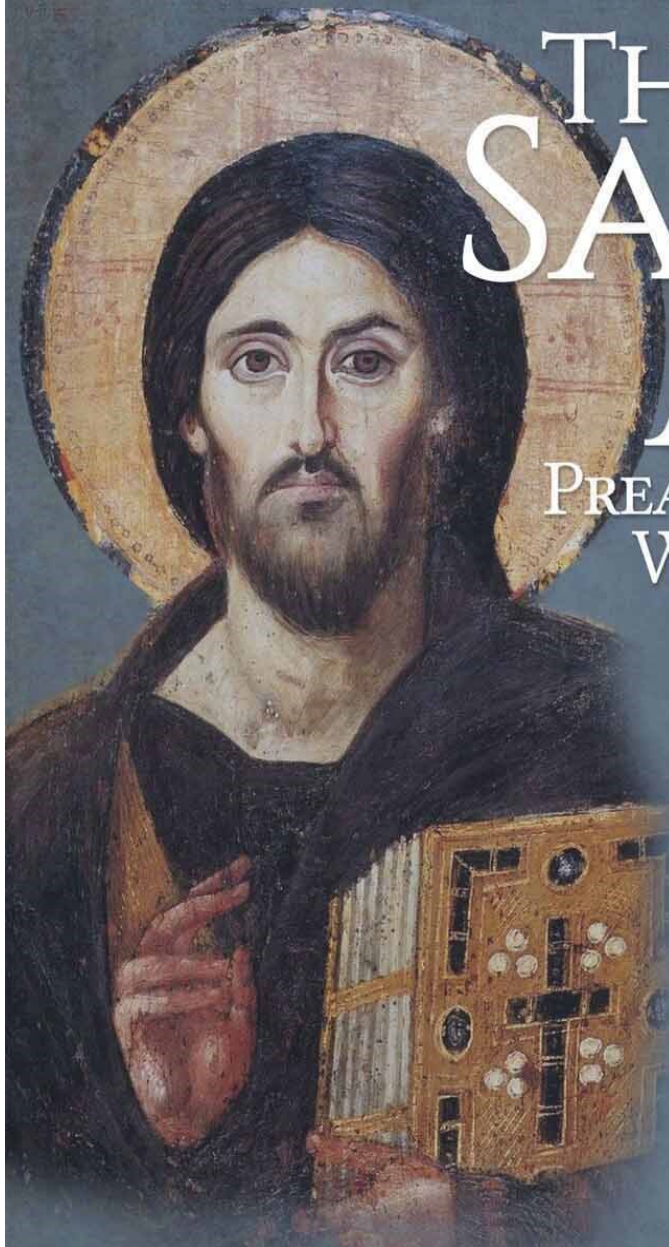

- ♦ Helped the homeless and the sick
- ♦ Fed hungry babies, children, and adults
- ♦ Sheltered and guided run-away teenagers
- ♦ Aided and visited those in prison, and cared for their families
- ♦ Provided food and medicine for war-torn and disaster struck victims

This will enable us to embrace the world with the love of Christ in these, 'the least of our brethren', saving ourselves as we work to save others.
